

On November 9, 2020, the R. E. Olds Transportation Museum announced at its Annual Membership meeting that it had hired a new Executive Director. Mr. Scott Mrdeza will officially start his duties on January 18th but he has already begun working on transitioning into the position. He will continue to do so while waiting for finalization of his retirement from GM.